THEATER
WORKS USA

Label the Characters and list 3 traits or adjectives for each.

A monologue is a speech that one actor says to another actor on stage.

Practice reading this monologue aloud.

Circle all the nouns and underline the verbs.

Read the passage aloud again and try to use your best Bob Cratchit voice by incorporating some of the character traits you listed above in the way you

Bob Cratchit:

Don't worry, dear. As I was walking home from the bakeshop I glanced down and saw something silver sparkling up at me through the snow.

It was a shilling! I figured an angel must have dropped it there just so the

Cratchit family could have as

Christmas tree!
